Profile

Exploring visual arts as a medium for communication between external and internal realms, focusing on healing systems within spiritual, psychological, and educational contexts. Through diverse creative approaches, fosters awareness of self and surroundings, harmonizing dualities such as the visible and invisible, materiality and spirituality, to promote balance and interconnectedness.

Having spent 10 years studying in the United States, currently based in Seoul for 6 years, pursuing personal art projects, curating exhibitions, and leading art therapy sessions. Actively engaged in holistic and integrative philosophies spanning Eastern and Western traditions.
